

MR. KETAN BHAGAT

(AUTHOR & SCRIPT WRITER)

Ketan Bhagat is a screenwriter, author, yoga teacher, motivational speaker, and father.

For more than two decades, Ketan has grown successful client relationships across multiple business sectors including telecom and banking. He is currently Regional Sales Manager at an IT MNC. Previously, he has done stints in Malaysia, New Zealand, and Australia.

Ketan began writing after the birth of his son Rian and published his first novel, Complete/Convenient in 2013 based on his NRI experience. In 2015, Ketan published his bestselling novel Child/God, which was based on his experience as a new father.

Ketan is a popular a motivational speaker. His talks mix the philosophy of the Bhagavad Gita, his practical outlook, and humour to help his audience realize their fullest potential.

His most recent creative project was 2019's popular Netflix film Upstarts, which he co-wrote with director Udai Singh Pawar. The film tells the story of three friends who found their own IT start-up in Bangalore. Ketan drew on his own experience in that sector to craft a story that is in turn touching, harrowing, and humorous.

Based in Mumbai, lately Ketan spends most of his free time editing his latest book, doing dishes, and hosting a pigeon langar on his balcony.
